RESIDENCE HALLS

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA

CAMPUS LIVING
There’s no denying that UF has a large campus.

For convenience purposes, on-campus residence halls are labeled according to the side of the campus they are most closely situated in.

The Halls in the East Campus Residence Area are some of the most requested by incoming freshmen. East Campus includes an outdoor swimming pool, a series of tennis courts, numerous Gator Dining locations, and a large grassy area affectionately dubbed “Broward Beach”, where residents meet to enjoy the sun.

West Campus is home to a wide array of residence halls—from traditional, to apartment style, there is something for everyone! Nearby amenities include the O’Connell Center, Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, Reitz Union, many Gator Dining locations, Phillips Center for the Performing Arts, Harn Museum of Art, and many UF recreational facilities.

WELCOME
TO THE TRUE COLLEGE EXPERIENCE

Our mission is to provide well-maintained, community-oriented facilities where residents and staff are empowered to learn, innovate, and succeed.

Enjoy convenience, life-long friendships, and an environment that fosters educational and personal growth while living in the heart of the Gator Nation. Campus residents have higher GPAs and graduation rates and experience more leadership opportunities.

WHY
LIVE ON CAMPUS?

ON AVERAGE, STUDENTS WHO LIVE AND ENGAGE WITH ON-CAMPUS ACTIVITIES PERFORM BETTER IN THEIR CLASSES.

CAMPUS PROGRAMS
In addition to Living Learning Communities hosted within halls, there’s a program for any skill set you could possibly imagine, right within your living facility.

RESIDENT DIVERSITY
Diverse living arrangements provide educational opportunities for students.

LIVING-LEARNING COMMUNITIES
The Innovation Academy Living-Learning Community (IALLC) at Beaty provides students with an intellectual and social community within the larger context of UF and their majors. The program, housed within one tower, encourages students to get out of their rooms and become active members of campus. In order to make the most of their time at UF, students in this small, diverse and supportive community are introduced to untapped campus resources and opportunities.

FEATURES
Double Room Apartments, Semi-Private Bathroom, study-Kitchenette (complete with Refrigerator, Range, Oven, and garbage disposal).
BROWARD AREA

LIVING-LEARNING COMMUNITIES
The Faculty-in-Residence Program at Broward Hall is a structured living-learning program that promotes interaction between students and faculty through out-of-classroom experiences. The Faculty-in-Residence lives in a specially designed apartment within or adjacent to a residence hall so that the faculty member and his or her family can share the residence hall living experience with students.

FEATURES
Serenity Room: multi-faith non-denominational prayer room. Several green courtyards with picnic areas and BBQ grills.

LIVING-LEARNING COMMUNITIES
The Returning Gators Program (RGP) is a sophomore living-learning community designed to address the specific needs and interests of second-year students at the University of Florida. It offers transitional programs and seminars beneficial for academic, career, community and leadership development.

The Honors II Living-Learning Community is designed to address the specific needs and interests of second-year students in the University Honors Program. Programs promote involvement in leadership opportunities, community service, study abroad, undergraduate research, and internships.

FEATURES
The Murphree Area is among the most beautiful and historical areas on the University of Florida campus. The Murphree Area has the oldest buildings on campus that were later converted to residence halls, therefore no rooms in any of the area buildings are exactly the same.

Living-Learning Communities

The Honors Residential College at Hume Hall is a living-learning community built on the former site of Hume Hall, which opened in 1958 and was razed in the Fall of 2000. Designed as a residentially-based academic community, UF’s newest facility integrates the housing needs of Honors residents with facilities, staff, and programs in support of the Honors Program.

Features

- A multimedia classroom
- Space for tutoring & academic advising
- A small group study space
LIVING-LEARNING COMMUNITIES

Keys apartments are predominantly for upperclassmen. Students must have at least 30 credit hours to qualify to live in Keys. However, freshmen can live here.

FEATURES

The individual buildings of Keys are named for different islands in the Florida Keys, and are referred to as "houses."

Keys apartments contain full size beds.*

* Limited amount of type may not have full size bedding.
LAKESIDE COMPLEX

LIVING-LEARNING COMMUNITIES
The Faculty-in-Residence Program at Lakeside is a structured living-learning program that promotes interaction between students and faculty through out-of-classroom experiences. The Faculty-in-Residence lives in a specially designed apartment within or adjacent to a residence hall so that the faculty member and his/her family can share the residence hall living experience with students.

FEATURES
IRHA allows vacuum checkouts with an activity card.
